SUPERIOR COURT OF COOK COUNTY,

JUDGE JESSE HOLDOM,

IN CHAMBERS.

CHICAGO,

APR 23 1900

April 23, 1900.

Secretary of State,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

I have your letter returning post money order for $1.00 and application for passport of Peher S. Peterson, stating that the application is defective in that it is not accompanied by naturalization certificate or a copy of the restored record thereof. Mr. Peterson is rather poor health and it is very hard to get very much information from him - he being an old gentleman and it being about a matter which occurred so long ago. There is this further fact that the Recorder's Court in which Peher S. Peterson was granted his naturalization papers was abolished by the constitution of 1870 and some of its jurisdiction was conferred upon the Criminal Court of Cook County, and other of its jurisdiction upon other courts. This fact somewhat complicates an application to restore the record. As a matter of fact the whole records of the Recorder's Court as well as that of all other Courts of Cook County were destroyed in the great fire of 1871.

On June 28, 1888, the Department of State issued to Mr. Peher S. Peterson passport No. 20473. Mr. Peterson likes to travel abroad under the protection of the American flag which a passport affords him.

Very truly yours,

Jesse Holdom

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed find application for Passport for Louis Eschner. In order to make the application perfectly plain, we would state that, when Mr. Eschner had his Naturalization Papers issued in 1880, he spelled his name "Eshner" like the rest of his relatives in this country, but finding since that time that the original and proper way to spell the name was "Eschner", he adopted that spelling. We have felt it best to give this explanation in case the difference in spelling should be noted, and you felt some mistake had been made.

We will thank you to send us a supply of application blanks for Citizens and Naturalized Citizens, and if there are any printed instructions that might be an aid, we shall be glad to receive them.

The One Dollar ($1.00) required is enclosed, as is also the original Certificate of Naturalization.

Yours very truly,

BARTLETT TOURS COMPANY.

Edw. C. Dixon
Treasurer.
